

The Spirit is Gift and Life

The spirit given by Jesus, given to the community

Formation through abiding in the father—as a community

The practice of abiding as individuals and as a community together

The spirit was given to the church, so that the church would abide in the Messiah. The father tends to those who are his, pruning for growth.